

CM congratulates BH College

Dispur, June 6: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal congratulated teaching and student fraternity, Governing Body Members of Barpeta Road Howly College on being awarded 'A' Grade by National Accreditation and Assessment Council (NAAC) recently.

In a statement here on Monday Sonowal said, "This is indeed an achievement for BH College on being adjudged 'A' Grade by none other than NAAC. Congratulations to the teachers, students and Governing Body members. It is because of your unstinted association, your college could bag this honour".

Sonowal moreover stated that the honour given to BH College during the Golden Jubilee year, will add another feather to its glorious existence and will definitely be a source for its relentless march towards academic excellence.
